She creates gardens that are bold, vibrant and ecologically rich, blending contemporary design with naturalistic planting. ‘We believe gardens create ecosystems that support biodiversity and make a difference in the natural world,’ Powell tells Spear’s. ‘The work I like to do is very much about changing people’s access to nature and to wildlife.’

Her impressive portfolio includes Grade I- and Grade II-listed private gardens, private school grounds, roof terraces and Gold-winning show gardens at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show.
